Education Performance Highlights:

- Girls proportion high in Central(2.28) and low in New Delhi(1.92)
- Gender Parity: City-wide index is 1.08. Girls are 52.02% of 7M students, outnumbering boys overall.
- Top Districts: West A leads Gender Parity (4.52), followed by West B (4.28). South West B-2 has the highest quality index (48).
- School Types: 4,000 schools are evenly split: 25% each (primary, middle, secondary, sr. secondary).
- Top quality index : Class 10 South West B-1(293.6) and Class 12 South West B-2(334.8)

Recommendation:
Focus improvement efforts on districts with lower girls' proportion and quality indexes (such as New Delhi and North East-1). Replicate successful strategies from top-performing and high-parity districts like South West B-2, South West B-1, and West A to elevate outcomes city-wide.

Table Insights:

- South West B-2 leads across the board with the highest Class X% (98.25), Class XII% (99.51), and quality indexes (292.23 / 334.80).
- North East-1 ranks lowest in Class X% (89.32) and class quality index (265.52), signaling an urgent need for targeted support.
- Central is notable for a decline in pass rate (–1.34%) despite maintaining moderate quality scores.
- North West B-2 and South West B-1 also demonstrate strong performance, pairing high pass rates with robust quality indexes.
- Color coding makes patterns instantly visible: green marks exceptional performance, red flags areas needing intervention.

Recommendation: Prioritize interventions in red-flagged districts, while leveraging strategies from top-performing zones to raise overall performance.

Averages of key education metrics by district

Combined Insight:

- Top Performers: South West B-1 (avg. quality index 45.40) and South West B-2 (41.02) lead in both average scores and detailed metrics—B-2 reaches 98.25% (Class X), 99.51% (Class XII), and quality indexes of 292.23/334.80.
- Lowest Performers: Central (32.57) and North East-1 (32.36) sit at the bottom of both views—Central shows a –1.34% pass difference, while North East-1 posts just 89.32% (Class X) and a 265.52 quality index—both require urgent intervention.
